

I support XM's stand it's a pay service and I depend on traffic reports to keep me on time for my service appointments leave them alone, We as americans need to get the old timers out of the government and replace them, So we can use the technology available to us and get their greedy hands out of the till